

B // Rock, Paper, Scissors

Just as Zhehai is about to put the final cup on his Colossal Castle, the entire structure comes tumbling down. Zhehai, enraged with the demise of his “home away from home,” quits building his castle and heads to write his Advanced Functions Test. He is so frustrated about what happened that he cannot focus on his Functions Test. Zhehai realizes after leaving the room that he needs to do something to save his mark. Zhehai walks back into Mr. Ing’s room and states, “Mr. Ing, I’ve come to bargain.” This makes Mr. Ing intrigued. Zhehai then continues to challenge Mr. Ing to a game of Rock, Paper, Scissors. Unfortunately, Mr. Ing knows all the strategies of Rock, Paper, Scissors. Given Zhehai’s choice of Rock, Paper, or Scissors, output the winning move that Mr. Ing will play.

Input Specification:

The first line will contain one of three possible moves that Zhehai can make. (“Rock”, “Paper”, or “Scissors”)

Output Specification:

Output Mr. Ing’s move.

Sample Input 1:

Rock

Sample Output 1:

Paper

Sample Input 2:

Scissors

Sample Output 2:

Rock